Dana Point

Ok received a violation notice fine $260.00 stating visiting Dog. This is pretty absurd. Absolutely no way possible is this me in 1505 112B

Thank you , Resident Services

I have 1 Dog in my Unit (Registered with Dana Point) his name is Maximus and that it.

He comes to work with me EVERYDAY all day 6 days a week & I return around 6:30 to 7 every evening for dinner & sleep. My wife works Every day all day too, so there is nobody home & nobody else living with us nor have I ever had anyone over with any sort of animal period. So not sure where this information came from (Little concerning) but it's absolutely 100% False they have us confused. I'm a good tenant, quite, clean, courteous, assessments never late & like I said not even home all that much. In conclusion please reverse this violation & fine as it in no way pertains to me or my wife in 1505 Unit 112B.

update 5/9 fwd to PM to respond direct to owner
Update Per PM: Outbound call 5/9/13 4:13PM - left message for owner at home - received insurance from LMS office on 5/6/13 so it must have arrived after her visit. Confirmed insurance received and all is up to date. Apologize for not getting return call, advised her balcony repair has been added to the project completion for this year. It was not added last year to those set to be done. PM will send notice when repairs are scheduled.

I stopped by the Dana Point office on 05-06-13 to renew my pool passes. At that time the office administrator said she didn't have a copy of my condo insurance policy on file. I told her I emailed it to the headquarters office on 05-01-13. It was emailed to "service@lmsnew.com" on 05-01-13 at 2:38PM. Would you please let me know it has been sent to the proper person in the Dana Point office? Thank you.

Additionally, I see you "completed" my question regarding the balcony repair. I never received a return call or message regarding the outcome. If I hadn't checked online I would have never known.
