History: This message has been replied to.

I left a money order in the drop box for $4.40. The bylaws can be mailed or slid under my door and save "The BOARD" fifty or sixty cents. If it is slid under the door just note it should be done quietly so as not to disturb Tinkerbell. Ms. Norwell does not like to hear the dog bark. She complained about the dog barking for 5 years before she started in on the cat. Also my lawyer needs ALL of the mail /violations-fines/ complaints from "The Board" from the beginning of my residence. Please email me the cost of that and I will get a money order out.

Also I sent in my registration for the feral colony in Mount Prospect. I am working with Serena from some animal society to help get this colony spayed/neutered. This is only the colony in Mount Prospect. No other cats are covered. Serena is an awesome animal advocate willing to do the right thing. I am so fortunate to have someone like her to help. The village of Arlington Heights is aware also and have been very helpful to me.

So please email the cost of my file.

Thank You for your help

Debi

Good Afternoon,

The Association attorney is Jim Slowikowski with Dickler, Kahn, Slowikowski, and Zavell, Ltd. . Their phone number is 847-593-5595. My direct supervisor at Lieberman is Michael Gasior and can be reached at 847-459-0000.

I will forward your response to the Board for review at the next meeting.

Sincerely,

Lisette,

I am not paying any portion of either of these fines. For the first Violation 1) I am not feeding in COMMON AREAS. This area is Mt. Prospect. 2) There are other people feeding the feral s as well. Based on my legal rights stated above I ask that you remove that charge.

For the second violation 2) There is NO ODOR coming from under my door nor has there ever been. This is a direct attack by Rochelle Norwell and Angie Simic. I will not pay this fine. Also the room spray smells lovely especially with all the various cooking odors and it is allowed.

Finally I ask that Lieberman Management provide me with someone in a supervisory position who can review this ongoing issue with me and provide me with the information I need to protect my legal rights above and beyond THE CONTROL OF THE BOARD. Also provide me with your lawyers information so that I may provide a copy of this. I have been harassed from day 1 because of Rochelle Norwell. So please provide me with Lieberman Managements supervisors info and the lawyers contact. I have dealt before with

Would it still be them? Please advise I am fully ready for legal action on behalf of Dana Point. This has to stop. This has caused me tremendous stress and illness and needs to stop. Rochelle should move if she is so unhappy. She rents. Deborah Whiteside[attachment "1.jpg" deleted by Lisette Ray/Lieberman]
